Greater Washington Partnership Statement on the Appointment of Paul Wiedefeld to Serve as Maryland Secretary of Transportation

WASHINGTON – Kathy Hollinger, chief executive officer at the Greater Washington Partnership, issued the following statement today on Maryland Governor Wes Moore’s appointment of Paul Wiedefeld to serve as Maryland Secretary of Transportation:

“As the Greater Washington Partnership continues to push efforts to enhance regional mobility, infrastructure and strengthen Maryland’s transportation system, we are encouraged by Maryland Governor Wes Moore’s appointment of Paul Wiedefeld to serve as Maryland Secretary of Transportation. Mr. Wiedefeld led WMATA during some of the organization’s most challenging times. There has been tremendous collaborative momentum with our Maryland leaders as we work to create a safe and reliable transportation network in our region. We look forward to working with Mr. Wiedefeld in his new capacity.”
