Greater Washington Partnership Applauds Maryland and Virginia Leaders for Framework Agreement to Expand MARC Train Service

WASHINGTON – Today, the Greater Washington Partnership released the following statement from Kathy Hollinger, CEO of the Greater Washington Partnership:

“Today, we are one step closer to connecting Baltimore to Richmond with the seamless, regular, and reliable rail service envisioned in the Capital Region Rail Vision. Building on the legacy of regional collaboration that makes this region the best place to live, work, and build a business, Maryland and Virginia announced a framework agreement to work together to implement run-through rail service between Northern Virginia and Maryland when the new Long Bridge opens.”
